SUMMARY

Goal-oriented Frontend Developer with over one year of commercial experience. I specialize in building high-load and interactive web and mobile applications using React, Next.js, TypeScript, Redux Toolkit, and React Native. Experience with implementing authentication, integrating REST APIs and WebSockets, setting up CI/CD, and writing unit tests. Achievements include: improving application performance by 30%, introducing Feature-Sliced Design architecture, and reducing page load time by 25%. I quickly adapt to new technologies, work effectively in a team, and independently find solutions to complex problems.
